Culture Circle Is Organized In This City

An addition to the literary and musical circles of Kendallville is a new literary and musical club, the Culture Circle, organized only a week or more ago. The club is composed of several of the young married ladies of our city and promises to be an organization that will become prominent in club circles of our city. The president is Mrs. Joseph Willis; leader and critic of literary work, Mrs. V. F. Haywood; leader and critic of musical work, Mrs. G. E. Walling. The club meets weekly on Tuesday afternoons, at the homes of the members. The meeting of this week will be held at the home of Mrs. R. K. Carr on West Mitchell street.

On the afternoon of Jan. 5. the Culture Circle met with Mrs Willis.

Seven members were present

President in charge.

Meeting opened by roll call.

Secretary's report read and approved.

The business for the day was limited to a general discussion in regard to allowing ourselves to be entertained by persons other than the circle members. It was decided that Rule 2. Art III, settled that matter

The program was as follows -

Mrs Walling presented the origin and work of the Red Cross - her authority being an article written by Clara Barton. We were all surprised to know that the first organized care of sick & wounded soldiers was done by Florence Nightingale during the Crimean War - 1853-56 and that the Red Cross work was originated in 1864 at a World's Congress called for by Switzerland and meeting in that country - which congress had no U. S. representation. Even now the U. S. is behind most nations in this work, having only 21.000 members against Japan's 1000 000.

Mrs Cohen introduced the subject of the Itali earthquake of Dec. 28 and a general discussion followed. Mrs Willis called attention to the fact that the largest loss of life in any previous disaster had been 40.000, that only 1000 perished in San Francisco while Italy has lost about 200.000.

Mrs Humphreys read an article on the life of Franz Liszt and Mrs Cohen and Mrs Willis played, beautifully, his 2nd Hungarian Rhapsody.

Mrs Puterbaugh entertained the Culture Club April 14, 1915.

Twelve members were present.

After a review of the Shakespear work, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and corrected and the critic's report was given.

A committee of three Mrs. Emerick, Mrs. E. Baker and Mrs. Stewart was named to decide on the books used for next year.

After a review of the literary work the music study with Mrs Halling leading, was spent on Bellini and his opera's, with special study on his opera "Norma" from which a splendid program was given by Mrs, Cohen, Mrs Clay and Mrs Halling.

Announcements were made and the meeting was adjourned, after which refreshments were served.

Clara Emerick, Sec,

7-36 April 21, 1915.

Mrs Shapland entertained the Culture Club April 21, 1915.

Thirteen members answered to roll call.

After the review on Othello, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and corrected and a bill from the Florist was allowed.

The critic's report was read and and the book committee made its report. It was moved and carried that two years be devoted to Dutch art with open days arranged by the art leader also that the music leader should arrange the French composers as she sees fit.

The usual current event discussion was held after which Mrs Elmer Baker read a paper on "The Shakespearian Drama".

The art study was a review of the year's work in Flemish art.

After the meeting was adjourned refreshments were served.

Clara Emerich Sec.
